To

Mary E. Kelso,

in appreciation of her sympathy and assistance to us at all times and her valuable services to our Alma Mater, this volume of the Instano is affectionately dedicated.

MISS MARY E. KELSO

*"Blessing she is; God made her so,
And deeds of week-day holiness
Fall from her noiseless as the snow,
Nor hath she ever chanced to know
That aught were easier than to bless.*

Our beloved friend and nurse, Miss Kelso, is a graduate of West Penn Hospital. After spending twelve years of her life in executive nursing, she was welcomed into our Normal School. For ten years her untiring efforts have resulted in a remarkable health record for the institution.

The class of nineteen hundred nineteen in particular will ever remember Miss Kelso for her skillful management of the influenza situation, and the sacrifice of her desire to become a Red Cross Nurse. Throughout the period of the epidemic, she nursed not only the students of the school but also those enrolled in our Student Army Training Corps.

The sweetness of disposition, the sympathetic, kind, and cheerful nature displayed by Miss Kelso in her arduous duties as school nurse make us feel no other could have filled her place.

DR. JOHN A. H. KEITH

Dr. John A. H. Keith has been the head of Indiana State Normal School of Pennsylvania since the autumn of 1917.

Dr. Keith graduated from the State Normal School at Normal, Illinois, in 1894, having had two years experience in country school work. The following two years he spent in the Training Department of the Normal School as Principal of the Grammar Room, resigning that position in 1896 and spending three years at Harvard University, taking the degree of A. B. in 1899 and A. M. in 1900. While at Harvard he was elected to the Phi Beta Kappa Fraternity, the entrance to which requires high scholarship. He was twice a member of the Harvard debating team against Yale, and coached two Harvard Debating teams against Princeton. After finishing at Harvard he was elected as assistant to Dr. John W. Cook, president of the De Kalb Normal School, 1899-1906, devoting most of his time to the field of psychology and pedagogy. He then returned to the State Normal School at Normal, Illinois, as Principal of the Training Department from 1906 to October, 1907, when he was elected President of the State Normal School at Oshkosh, Wisconsin. He remained in that position from October 1907, to August 1917, resigning to come to Indiana. He came splendidly recommended.

In 1905 Dr. Keith published a book "Elementary Education, Its Processes and Problems," and has contributed largely to educational literature.

Through all these trying days of war and epidemic, Dr. Keith has been a calm, considerate executive, holding Indiana to an even higher standard of scholarship than formerly and facing with courage the problems of finance, and reconstruction involved.

The class of 1919 has been exceedingly fortunate in having as guide through the years spent at Indiana a man of such splendid character and faithfulness.

JANE E. LEONARD, M. S., A. M.

No other name means more to the students and graduates of Indiana than that of Miss Leonard, for through her faithfulness to their welfare she has done much in winning for the school that high standing which it now possesses.

Miss Leonard has given all and done all within her power for Indiana. She has devoted her lifetime, ever since the school's beginning to her duties as Preceptress. Under the influence of her sweet nature and Christian personality, the girls of this institution have caught that wonderful spirit of life which radiates from her presence.

In past years she has been the connecting link between the graduates and their Alma Mater and this year that tie of love will be strengthened, for the class of '19 will carry away with them a broader and more intelligent view of worldly affairs because of her excellent leadership during the trying years of the war.

We will remember:

*"The reason firm, the temperate will,
Endurance, foresight, strength and skill,
A perfect woman, nobly planned,
To warn, to comfort, and command."*

WALTER M. WHITMYRE, A. B., A. M.

Walter M. Whitmyre, Preceptor at Indiana, is also head of the History Department and the Athletic coach.

He was graduated from Jeannette High School in 1905, and entered Syracuse University the same year, graduating with an A. B. degree in 1909. During 1909-10 and the summer of 1917, Mr. Whitmyre attended the Harvard Graduate School, receiving an A. M. from that University. In 1910-11 he taught in Jeannette High School and later held a position in the Shattuck Boys' School, Fairbault, Minnesota, as teacher of history and coach in baseball and football. He was head of the Department of History in the high school at Dubuque, Iowa, for some time. He resigned at Dubuque in the summer of 1917, to accept his present position.

Mr. Whitmyre is not only a strong athletic coach, but also a man who thoroughly understands school life and does the best to promote its welfare. Possessing, as he does, a scholarly knowledge of his subjects as a teacher. He has the respect of the entire student body.

CLASS SONG '19

Words—Kathryn Nicol

Music—Mary St. Clair King

Dear old Indiana,
Our hearts throb warm for you;
You have no need to doubt it,
We know that you're true blue.
Still you remain
Majestic, Firm and grand,
Beauty round about you
And power in your hand.

CHORUS: 1ST VERSE

Stately oaks and maples,
What tales those trees could tell!
But like the rest
Who know and love,
They guard their secrets well.

Oh school of loyalty,
You're noble through and through;
You gave your best to us,
We'll give our best to you!
How proud we are
To have been yours,
To claim you for our own;
Each student you have taught
Has finer, nobler grown.

CHORUS: 2ND VERSE

Dear old hills and sunsets,
What pictures you create!
Sweet nature's call
Is heard by all
At the home of the Red and Slate

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The class of 1920 met and became acquainted on the soccer field. Such fun we had and, to tell the truth, if the weather had permitted, some say, we would have won a victory over the Seniors in the Soccer game.

Happy were we when Mr. E. M. Jackson called a meeting of the Juniors in January. It was to organize the Junior Class of 1919. Then we started to prepare for the Junior yearly "Hop." February twenty-second was decided upon. Such fun in the preparation especially for those who squeezed lemons all afternoon.

The work was not in vain. The "Hop" was a success. The Juniors and their friends were in full attendance with about one hundred twenty-five couples.

The Maggio Orchestra from Pittsburgh kept us dancing from seven till eleven-thirty. When it was all over even to last water eaten and the punch had been drunk, we decided that we would never forget all the fun crammed into one evening.

Remember, girls! The boys were to depart at 3:45 p. m. on Sunday and beware, oh girls, when they left at four! The rest of the Junior Year has been full of work and happiness and the best is yet to be. State Board.

FAREWELL

This is the close of our Senior year,
But our tasks have just begun;
These are the school days we'll hold so dear,
Many the friends we've won.

Time will pass and fond memories, too,
But some things we won't forget—
Deeds that were done for us, small but true,
The last chances we regret.

Priceless may be the knowledge we've gained,
And high our standards may be,
But to the teachers our debts remain,
Indebted we ever will be.

Some blessings come in disguise we know,
Some never are brought to light;
The tactful word is what helped us so—
Set us on the road to right.

So let us leave not being too glad,
But a little sad of heart,
And think of all that we have had
To give our career a start.

Life is before us—we must make good,
Our hard tasks are with us still,
Be not content with the tame "I could"
But always the proud "I will."

—MARGARET SECHLER.

Organizations

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

As the girls who go out this year recall their days at Indiana they will always remember the Y. W. C. A. and the help as well as the pleasure they received from its Thursday night meetings.

The association was founded twenty-two years ago under the direction of Miss Leonard, who has ever since been the steady hand which guided its many activities. Since then it has advanced rapidly until this year it has reached its paramount point of success. It has an enrollment of two hundred fifty members.

The Y. W. C. A. has held a prominent place in the social life of the school. In the early fall a reception was given to welcome the new girls into membership. Since then the Y. W. rooms have been opened every Saturday evening for the girls and faculty to enjoy the stunts and games which hold a conspicuous place in the entertainment. The carnival held by the association gave a good time, never to be forgotten, to the many who attended. The two plays given by the Y. W. were also a great success.

The association is sending five delegates to Eagles Mere this spring. By this means it gains inspiration and keeps in touch with the work done by its sister organizations in other schools.

EIGHT WEEK CLUB

Among the activities of the Indiana State Normal School is the Eight Week Club, organized under the supervision of the Y. W. C. A. to induce college and normal girls during their summer vacation to share the very best that has come to them at school with the girls who live in their home communities.

It is the good times—the games, the stunts, and the fun—that brighten the whole eight weeks for the girls. Of course, girls like good times and who can bring them more of the real joy of comradeship than the college girl who is their leader? Walking may sound stupid and hard, but a sunrise “hike” with a camp-fire breakfast and learning on the way to know several more trees and birds as well as to find out how jolly and companionable the girl who lives near you really is, is a joy so vivid and genuine that it will always be remembered.

Realization was even greater than anticipation when we had our early morning bacon-frie in an enjoyable spot near Indiana. To make the members more proficient in helping others we had instructions in First Aid work. Every girl was eager to become more familiar with indoor games and so games were taught.

Indiana has had the certificate from the National Board of the Christian Association for her outstanding work in organizing such clubs. It is our aim throughout the coming years to make a similar record.

An Eight Week Club brings breadth of vision, and new ways of doing old things; unites the girls of a community for helpfulness and service, and deepens their friendship with one another, and their friendship with Christ.

S. A. T. C.

The first thing of importance that we heard on returning to I. S. N. S., September, 1918, was that we were going to have a Students' Army Training Camp. We were delighted with the news and waited patiently for October to come.

The boys, numbering about one hundred fifty, were sworn into service October the first. The exercises were held in front of the boys' dormitory. Speeches were made by Principal John Keith and Senator Fisher. The town people and the entire student body attended these exercises.

The S. A. T. C. was divided into three squads, an eighteen year old, a nineteen year old and a twenty year old squad, each having its own course of study.

Lieutenant Butler was the commanding officer of the S. A. T. C., assisted by Second Lieutenants Jones, Clapp, Carey, and Zinsmeister.

Several days after their induction the boys were placed under quarantine on account of the influenza. This, however, did not hinder the progress of their work.

On November the 28th, the S. A. T. C. gave a dance. Girls from the dormitory were invited and all who went had a delightful time.

They presented a play "The Man Without a Country" in Chapel, December the 10th and 11th, the leading part being taken by Sergt. McCracken. The play proved a great success.

Shortly after they held a farewell banquet. The faculty and those who help with the play were invited to the festive occasion. Then the boys began to make their departure from I. S. N. S. A number of the boys returned the next term to take College Preparatory work.

GROVEOLOGY

Groveology is a different subject, we find,
Taught by no one teacher at no certain time,
Each pupil has a teacher all her own,
Each teacher has a different "tone."

Groveology is a course not taken by all;
No one ever fails, but they are said to "fall."
'Tis true the trees their secrets won't tell,
But they know the "story" and they know it well.

Groveology is not approved by all, we know,
We hope it's not 'cause they never had a beau.
But when marks go down and work is no good
Teachers blame it on "Hearts carved carefully in wood."

Moral:
About groveology let me give this little tip:
Don't take it unless you fear a zip.

Y. W. C. A. CARNIVAL

Recreation Hall and Chapel

General Manager

Elizabeth Sykes

Carnivals are sometimes found in Recreation Halls, and rare though such occasions may be, the Normal Y. W. C. A. can claim the greatest ever held in Pennsylvania.

On Saturday, April 12, at 7:45 P. M., the chapel was opened for a really high class musical program given under Miss Farlins direction by Mrs. Colburn and the Indiana Ladies' Chorus. This was followed by a pantomime featuring "The Movie Maniac."

Promptly at 8:15 with rush, push, shuffle and bustle, the crowd thronged to the ticket window, where two charming young ladies were busily issuing tickets for admission to the carnival grounds. The entrance was so crowded by the anxious mob that it became necessary for the Carnival Company to summon near by cops from their nightly beat of duty.

A Series of Attractions were given on the Carnival Grounds (Recreation Hall) the genuine worth of which was so pronounced that even managers of side shows and exhibits foresook their posts to join the audience.

Quite unusual in connection with a Carnival Company was the Paramount Movie, starring "The Breath of a Nation" by the Garlie Company and "The Tale of a Horse, featuring Mary Pitchfork."

With the Sykes Carnival Company traveled the tallest, smallest, fattest skinnest and goopiest, freaks of the world, including Indiana, Pennsylvania.

The crowd also witnessed for the first time, Bosco's Jungle of the wildest, rarest, and most extinct animals in captivity.

Number six was a usual carnival side show for Men only.

Before the eyes of the assembled multitude attractive maidens from Japan served the thirsty Americans with tea and cakes. The Artistic decorations added to the enjoyment of the dainty refreshments.

A chance to win a cigar was given to men and women alike for "hitting the nigger on the head."

Miss Spencer proved a wonderful fortune teller. Ask the girls what she told them.

And— of course there were ice cream cones and loads of fun. Don't mention it.

If the Y. W. C. A. ever has another Carnival, no one will miss it.

HUYGHENIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

The Huyghenians can well be proud of their Society, for since its organization in 1875 all incoming members have put forth a strenuous effort to make it a success. We realize they have not worked in vain. This year particularly the intense interest of the Juniors and Seniors has been aroused.

Many changes for the better have been adopted by the 1919 Class. Our enrollment reached its zenith when the Juniors were required to join a society. The Erodelphians and Huyghenians decided to hold joint meetings, alternately acting as an audience and furnishing the entertainment. As a result of this arrangement spirited competition quickly developed, thus making the programs of an excellent character. Much zest and variety were added to our meetings by the many amusing pantomimes that were staged. The two Huyghenian plays were a great financial success as well as a literary one.

Organized 1875

COLORS: Blue and White

MOTTO: Per Aspera ad Astra

The Fall term of the Erodelphean Literary Society opened with great enthusiasm, an abundance of Society spirit and a membership of two hundred. It has been our sole aim during the year to make our programs as attractive and interesting as possible.

One of the important things done by the Society this year was the adoption of a French War Orphan. In order to raise the money for this purpose a very clever play, "Fanny and the Servant Problem," by Jerome K. Jerome, was given and successfully carried out.

CLASS POEM

Dear old normal, dear old normal,
How our hearts go out to you!
We're half happy, half regretful
That our normal days are through.

Now its springtime here at Normal.
And it makes us love you more,
While the sun and rain are bringing
Nature's beauties to your door.

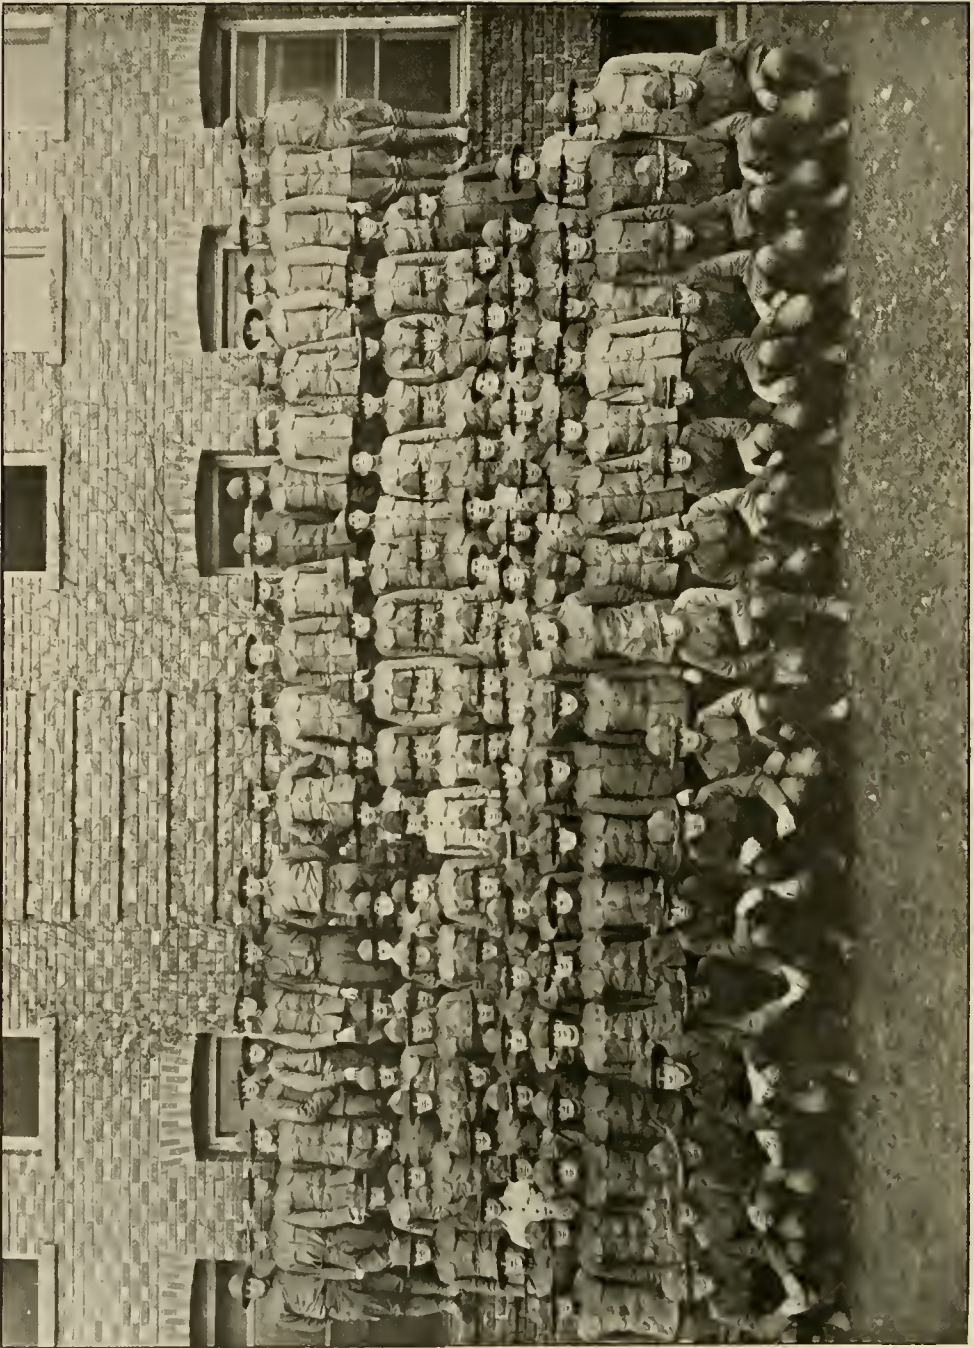

Petty cares and school day trifles,
Oh, how much they meant to us!
How we liked the noise and babble,
The confusion and the fuss!

Happy days, we'll not forget them!
Day of youth and full of fun,
Happy days of joy in living
With our Normal life begun.

Young and foolish, yes but joyful!
Joyful in our tasks and play;
Throbbing with the youth and vigor
Of the dear Old Normal way.

—KATHRYN NICOL.

FOOTBALL

We returned to the football season with some of the best material that could be found, and with Coaches Whitmyre and Smith, who had arranged an exceedingly good schedule. The team played its first game with Washington and Jefferson at Washington on October 5. It turned out to be a defeat for Indiana by the score of 7-0. The game was interesting and was a well-fought game by both teams. However, on account of the "Flu" and the school's being quarantined, no games were played for four weeks. Our next game was with Johnstown High, Championship holder of Western Pennsylvania. This proved a very hard fought game and ended with a tie. Another game was played with New Kensington's Sterling Independent team, in which Indiana piled up a score of 88-0. This closed the season of football.

This year's varsity team stands out as one of the most successful teams that ever represented Indiana on the basketball floor.

The manager arranged an exceedingly attractive schedule—sixteen games, including Duquesne University, State College Freshmen, Bellefonte Academy, Pitt Academy and many other teams of high standing in this part of the country.

The team was fortunate in securing Mr. Whitmyre as coach, and its ability was well proved by the scores, which showed 12 out of 16 games won. It was the excellent team work and fast playing in every game that brought victory to Indiana.

The Reserves deserve much credit for very ably assisting the varsity in rounding into shape.

BASEBALL

As the "Instano" goes to press, Indiana prospects look very bright for another victorious season. With only two players left from last year's team Coach Whitmyre must develop practically a new team, but much material is at hand to form a varsity better than ever, the call for candidates in the spring having brought out thirty aspirants.

We are sure our opponents will find it rather difficult to pick out a vacant spot in the outfield, guarded by Harrick, one of last year's outfielders. Campbell, also of last year, and Mahaffey from Mercersburg. Our infield is stronger than ever and O'Toole is again behind the bat doing his usual snappy work. Capt. Haley, one of last year's infielders, is playing second base this year.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The year 1919 brought unlimited success to the Girls' Basketball Squad. Early in January a practice was called and about seventy-five responded. Of the 1918 squad we found Alma Nelson of Windber the strongest in every line of work and she was chosen by the Faculty Athletic Committee as captain of the team. Pauline Baldwin and Henrietta Sproat, having had a year's experience in team work, showed up well, and were at once put at center and guard, which positions they held the entire season. Nora Luther, who played four years on the Windber High, two of them being with Captain Nelson, soon found her place at forward and Sara Bevan, a Freshman, made a name for herself at guard. She is one of the pluckiest little girls ever seen in girls' basketball, and we see a great future before her.

The total result, 267 points for us against 88 for our opponents, speaks for itself. Our greatest scorers were Baldwin and Nelson, the former eaging 14 field goals in one game. At the end of the season a banquet was given to the squad by the coaches. Miss Eyre and Miss Rose, and the announcement of the choice of Nora Luther as Captain of the 1920 squad brought much applause from her teammates.

Everyone will agree that the success of the 1919 team depended a great deal on the fine, efficient coaching of Miss Eyre and Miss Rose and to them much praise is due. Indiana won the Championship of Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio.

TENNIS

We are again looking forward to the laurels to be won by the tennis team. Last spring at California Normal our stars brought back to I. S. N. S. the championship cup that California held for two years. The men's singles were quickly taken by Andrew Wilson, men's doubles by Andrew Wilson and George Wilson, and girls singles were won by Dorothy Hill, the left-handed tennis star.

We lost but one point in the tournament, and that was the girls doubles. But we were very much pleased to win the highest number of points.

The points were as follows:

Indiana—3

California—0

Clarion—1

We hope to take all four this year.

Miss Hill is the only one left from the last springs team, but with the aid of some very promising new players we expect again to win the championship of the three Normals. The tournament will be held at Clarion Normal in June.

ACTIVITIES

SENIOR PROM

November 16, 1918.

Tiny, bewitching electric lamps everywhere—beautiful gowns—handsome men—wonderful music! One big night for the Seniors. The Juniors? Upstairs, of course! To make a long story short a delightful memory.

MILITARY DANCE

November 26, 1918.

Who'd say we didn't have the right kind of soldiers at Indiana? They fought their way to victory when they wanted a dance. Flags, banner, red, white and blue lamps, N'everything.

PHI ALPHA AND OMEGA CHI FRATERNITY DANCE

Never such a good time! Wonderful music—Maggio!—Couldn't have kept your feet still even if you had wanted to! But you didn't want to! No indeed! Remember Jada, and Hindustan! Oh, those chicken sandwiches and that angel food cake! You met all your fraternity friends with their "fair ones" and had a regular old-time jollification. Keep it up boys!

JUNIOR DANCE

February 22, 1919.

Juniors' big night. They thought they could keep all the Seniors in their rooms but they couldn't tie the ones who were fortunate enough to be invited. Fine night for a dance, big moon, Maggios' peppy music and good punch. Juniors are to be congratulated.

PAN—HELLENIC DANCE

April 7, 1919.

Yes, we gave up a day of our perfectly good vacation to get back for the All Sorority Dance—but who wouldn't, when your best man can come right with you. McGonnegal's orchestra from Johnston with the best music, and those adorable favors! This dance will stand out as one of the bright places in our young and frivolous lives.

PHI ALPHA DINNER-DANCE

May 3, 1919.

This dance was the first of its kind ever held in the school and one of the most brilliant social events of the season. There was a delicious dinner in the Dining room at 7 o'clock—daffodils adorning the tables. Fine toasts were given by Miss Leonard, Dr. Keith, Mr. Whitmyre and Mr. Wiley. Dancing was then enjoyed in Recreation Hall until 11:30. The music couldn't have been better and the affair was a huge success. Leave it to the Phi Alpha's to make it that!

—HAPPY GOLDSMITH.

Letter (in translation) from French Orphan adopted by Senior Class.

La Chapelle Rambau.
April 23, 1919.

Dear Godmother:

In these few lines I am replying to your first letter which I was pleased to receive, and also your album, which gave me pleasure to see that I had a charming Godmother who is interested in me. Dear Godmother will you excuse my delay in replying to your letter of January, because we are in a mountainous country at an altitude of 900 meters. Since mother was ill, I had to wait to have my dear Godmother's letter translated. I had to send it to the New Zealand Hospital, where the Superintendent translated your letter for me. All of this took time.

Dear Godmother, I hope that my little letter will find you in good health.

I had not progressed far in my education when the mobilization was declared in 1914. We were in Switzerland (I think that my dear Godmother has heard of Switzerland.) If mother's condition had not become worse I could write better and spell more correctly; for Switzerland is a well educated country. But luck has not favored us. I am not the only one in the family. There are three sisters and myself. We have some savings that we have spent taking care of Mother, for she has had much to do during the four and a half years of war. This has tired her very much but she is much better. Thank God, and one must trust to Providence. My dear father departed at the beginning of the war, never to return, (a sad thing) to defend our beloved France so much threatened.

You ask me if I have ever heard of a woman president. I can understand that you have replaced a Professor and therefore dear Godmother, you are director in an institution. I think also that your dear soldiers, who have fought so bravely, will soon come back to you and that the times will be better for all.

I thank you a thousand times, dear Godmother, for your souvenir. I am proud of it and I should like to see all the views that it contains. Unfortunately I cannot read it.

Thanks and thanks for what you have sent and good health. Your little orphan, with best greetings.

EUGENE PASSAGUAY.

HISTORY OF THE SENIOR CLASS

In the Fall of nineteen fifteen we came to Indiana as a class of sixty-eight Freshmen. Of those sixty-eight, only nine now remain in the class of 1919; these are Annette Bushyager, Mary Frederick, Helen George, Helen Gillespie, Helen James, Sarah Lafferty, Lena Long, Margaret Rhoades, and Edith Small. What a time we had until we were settled! The signing of classification cards, the waiting in line to pay our money, the borrowing of pencils until we got our programs made out and approved all seemed an endless task. At the close of that first day how good our beds did seem!

The next day we found more trials in store for us. How many were there who entered a class of Sophomores in mistake and were told that the Freshmen room was just next door? In a few days we had to draw cards for tables in the dining room; after we found our places we felt well established for the year. The following Fall we were joined by forty-eight other Sophomores, entering with high school credit. Eighteen of these now remain with us.

In the Fall of nineteen seventeen came the greatest number, twenty-seven music, forty-one commercial and two hundred ten regular Juniors. Most of these were high school graduates. We organized our class, electing William Bittorf, President, Charles Johnson, Vice President, Helen George, Secretary, and Annette Bushyager, Treasurer. Things ran smoothly until color rush day. There was a great deal of quarreling between Juniors and Seniors but the Brown and Gold still fluttered when the rush was over; and we settled down to peaceful conditions when the Senior hay loads departed.

Soon we were looking forward to our Christmas Vacation. On the morning of the departure, after hastily swallowing a cup of coffee we were told by Mr. Gordon to hurry up,—the 6:10 was waiting.

We were anxious to return for the Term because every one was looking forward to the Junior Prom. The dance was beyond our expectations; we will always remember the scene, the charmingly dressed girls and gallant young men swaying to the sweet strains of the popular one-steps. Most of Winter Term with its cold but coalless days was a great trial for everyone but in spite of rumors of closing school Indiana pushed onward until some car loads of coal and later the bright sunshine of spring lifted the gloom of winter.

Spring Term passed quickly. What an excitement there was when the State Board announced "Every one has gone over the top!"

We returned this Fall a trifle more dignified for were we not to become part of the teaching force at Model? After the usual greetings between the returned Seniors the question was invariably "What are you teaching this term?"

Early in the term we had a class meeting and elected our class officers: Marion Lamison, President, Maude Crawford, Vice President, Helen George, Secretary, Dorothy Hill, Treasurer, all have done their work with a spirit and enthusiasm which leaves no room for criticism. Our Senior dance took on a War time appearance. Many uniforms appeared on the floor and cakes and punch was sold by girls dressed like Red Cross Nurses.

Soon we elected the Instano Board. Helen Bailey was elected Editor-in-Chief and to her and the rest of the Board and to the kind advice of Principal Keith we owe a lasting debt for the success of this book.

When we came back in the Winter Term we were surprised to find that some of the members of the class were chosen as heads of tables in the dining room, because in the Fall the S. A. T. C. had part of the dining room, none of us had that honor.

Soon we began making trips to the photographer because we could not imagine an Instano going to press without our pictures gracing its pages.

We decided to adopt a war orphan. This was only one small way we had of answering the cries of war-stricken Europe. Since then our president has communicated with the child and much interest is added to our meetings when we hear his letters read.

On May 20th we had a class meeting and decided to display our colors. The next morning, to the surprise of all, especially the Juniors, we appeared at eight o'clock with bands of brown and gold encircling our heads. At noon the under classmen had the dining room to themselves until we came marching in, colors flying, spirits high, amidst the applause of all. With expectancy every one hurried to chapel and there the 1919 banners were conspicuously arranged. We marched in to the reserved seats in front and sang the Alma Mater. Still our celebrations were not at an end. Busy Seniors worked during the afternoon decorating the dining-room and Recreation Hall. After everyone was seated the doors were flung open, the Senior Class dressed in white and lead by a fairy like child representing a brown-eyed Susan entered and proceeded to parade to the music of "The Spirit of Indiana." A short song of advice was sung to the Juniors. Dinner began only to be interrupted by yells and songs. Dinner finished, we marched to Recreation Hall where only Senior girls, but all the boys, were permitted to dance. At the end of that day we felt that our class spirit was not lacking.

With the gladness of Spring, bringing with it the birds and flowers, and an ineffable beauty to the campus, comes also a sorrow in our hearts to leave this Alma Mater which we all so dearly love. Our thought is now, as we go out into the different paths of life, to make ourselves worthy to be called daughters and sons of Indiana.

HELEN G. KEPPLE.

A TOAST

Here's to our class in Ag. my dears,
Here's to the class of attraction—
Here's to the cows "petiters" and ears
So dear to Mr. Jackson.

Here's to our class in Ed., my dears,
Here's to the class they might censor;
"It treats too much of men," she fears—
But we loved it because of Miss Spencer.

Here's to our class in Math., my dears,
Here's to the class where we're "smiley"
Here's to the percentage cloud that clears
Through the sunshine of Gordon and Wiley.

Here's to our class in Public Speaking, my dears,
The class, which caused us some growls,
But it was only stage freight that caused our fears. —
We're over it—Thanks to Miss Sprowls.

Here's to our class in Methods, my dears,
The class we're glad to attend,
When note books are good, someone it cheers,
Miss Robinson, who is our friend.

Here's to our class in Gym., my dears,
The class where we never doze
Because we're fond of Miss Eyre, my dears,
And our new acquaintance, Miss Rose.

Here's to our Grammar class, my dears,
Here's to the class not a myth
Where for flaws in language we train our ears
Thru the efforts of Noble and Smith.

Here's to our Physics class, my dears,
Where nary a word is harsh
We at first found it aroused our fears
Until all was explained by Marsh.

Here's to our Drawing class, my dears,
Here's to Millet, Raphael and Reni;
Perspective taught till its truth appears
By no other than Jean McElhaney.

Here's to our teaching at Model, my dears,
Which dignifies youthful features—
Here's training gained for future years
Under faithful critic teachers.

NIGHTS AT NORMAL

The nights come dark and quiet,
The bells do ring no more;
The sandmen have a riot
As the key turns in the door.

The watchmen keep their watch, 'tis true,
For disturbed we never are;
The calls for help just as few
As our rides in a car.

THE PEAR ORCHARD AGAIN

There are many courses in Normal,
And some are exceedingly formal;
But there's one in the Grove
Where some people rove,
Quite normal when it is informal.

A LITTLE BULLET DOUGH

Keep your gas lights burning
While your meat your turning
Tho your bill is far away
It will soon come home,
There's a silver lining
In your purse a shinning
Turn your purse inside out
When the bill comes home.

There were members in our class
Who always did so surpass
Until in one test
They lost step with the rest,—
O, the zips in Arithmetic class!
